DECLARATION - Bd.R. 203(b)³

TORCZON, Administrative Patent Judge.

1 A. Declaration of interference

2 An interference is declared pursuant to 35 U.S.C. 135(a). Details of the applications,
3 count, and claims designated as corresponding to the count appear under headings E and F of this
4 DECLARATION.

5 B. Designation to manage

6 Administrative Patent Judge Richard Torczon has been designated to manage the 7 interference. Bd. R. 104(a).

² Docket # Enz-5(D8)(C2).

³ "Bd.R. x" may be used as shorthand for "37 C.F.R. § 41.x". 69 Fed. Reg. 49960, 49961 (12 Aug. 2004).

1 C. Standing order

2 A copy of the Trial Section STANDING ORDER [SO] (Paper 2) accompanies this
3 DECLARATION. The STANDING ORDER applies to this contested case.

4 D. Conference call to set dates

5 A telephone conference call to set dates for action in this contested case is scheduled for
6 2 p.m. (Eastern) on 10 January 2007. (The Board will initiate the call.)

7 No later than 8 January 2007, each party shall file and serve (SO ¶¶ 10.1 & 105) a list of 8 the motions (Bd. R. 120; Bd. R. 204; SO ¶¶ 104.2.1, 120 & 204) the party intends to file.

9 A sample schedule for taking action during the motion phase appears as Form 2 in the 10 STANDING ORDER. Counsel are encouraged to discuss the schedule prior to the conference
11 call and to agree on dates for taking action. A typical motion period lasts approximately eight (8)
12 months. Counsel should be prepared to justify any request for a shorter or longer period.

F. Count and claims of the parties

Count 1

The method of 5,821,058 claim 14.

The claims of the parties are:

Caltech: 1-56

Enzo: all⁴

The claims corresponding to Count 1:

Caltech: 1-56

Enzo: all

⁴ The Enzo claims are so numerous and erratically numbered that this declaration adopts the expedient of referring to the source rather than risk the likelihood of misstating the claims. A copy of the Enzo claims is attached as an appendix. A last minute paper from Enzo suggests cancellation of some of the claims without prejudice. Given the great age of the Enzo application, the suggestion is declined on those terms since it could leave a considerable number of complex estoppel issues unresolved in any subsequent examination. Nevertheless, the suggestion to simplify issues in the interference is appreciated.

Enzo's claims, as prosecuted, are extraordinary in their flagrant disregard of 35 U.S.C. 112(5) and 37 C.F.R. § 1.75. Although the examiner has a responsibility to enforce the statute and the rules, Enzo drafted and filed the claims and thus bears the ultimate responsibility for their defects. Enzo is hereby on notice that the carelessness and propensity for needless complexity evident from its claims will not be tolerated during the interference.
